The Last Supper

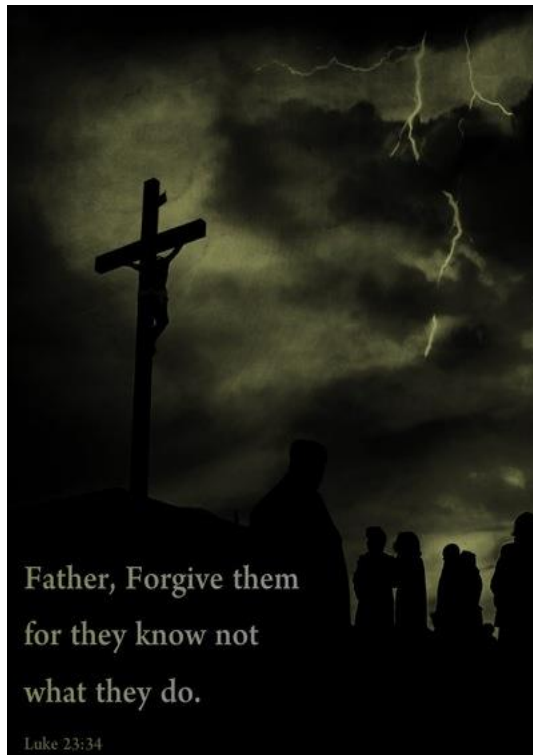

Jesus celebrated Passover with his disciples in Jerusalem. It was the last meal they shared before Jesus' death. Jesus passed around unleavened bread and wine saying that they represented his body and blood. Christians still remember that today in the Eucharist.

Good Friday

Jesus was arrested in the garden of Gethsemane and sentenced to die on a cross.

Christians believe that Jesus died so that mankind could be forgiven of all their sins and be reunited with God. Jesus' sacrifice was made to save all humans.

Jesus said, 'Forgive them Lord, for they know not what they do', when he was on the cross, praying for his tormentors.

Father, Forgive them for they know not what they do.

Luke 23:34

Easter Sunday

After Jesus died, he was taken down from the cross, his body wrapped and placed in a tomb. A stone was rolled in front of the entrance.

Mary Magdalen went to visit Jesus' tomb and found it empty. An angel appeared to her and told her that Jesus had risen. Jesus was then seen by his disciples for 40 days before he ascended to heaven.
